4th of July Fireworks!

It's been a busy summer here at the PHCG, but we wanted to take a break and share this amazing story of adoption that happened with fireworks just two weeks ago. It all started on May 9th when a young woman came into our center, shocked to find out she was 27 weeks pregnant. She was still in school, lived with her family, and didn't have a relationship with the father – she knew she wasn't emotionally or financially ready to take care of a child on her own. Thankfully, as a believer in Christ, she also knew that everything was in God's hands. Our Client Advocate Volunteer presented her with materials for adoption, and she soon found herself working with our partner, New Life Adoptions, to find a suitable family. Just eight weeks later, instead of watching fireworks for the 4th of July, she found herself in labor, giving birth early to a little sparkler of her own; a beautiful, healthy baby boy.

As she handed her son to his new family, she expressed that she had never felt such intense joy and heartbreak at the same time. At the last minute, she requested an open adoption so she could have a relationship with her child, and the adoptive family was more than happy to oblige. When she returned to the PHCG to tell her story, with a huge smile on her face and tears in her eyes, she said she didn't lose a child – she gained a family. The wisdom, strength, love, and bravery that God bestowed on this young woman is simply remarkable. She is starting school again this week, has a steady job, and New Life Adoptions is supporting her with counseling. She's committed to working hard so her son will be proud of her one day, and there's no time to waste! She's already willing to "pay it forward" by sharing her story with other PHCG clients in similar situations. Choosing life is the ultimate act of love, and when you fully experience God's love, you have nothing to fear.

"Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things." 1 Corinthians 13:7

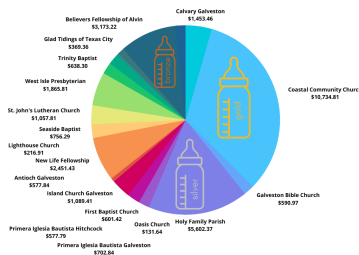

If you were encouraged by our story today and can see yourself walking alongside new mamas and families through the ups and downs of pregnancy and parenting, WE NEED YOU! Client Advocates are needed in each appointment for 1:1 care, but we also have opportunities to help with administrative tasks. Bilingual/Spanish speakers are especially encouraged to attend. There is a place for you to use your gifts to bless our ministry!
